

There are lots
and lots of people
with disabilities
in the world.

There are lots
and lots of
disability pride
festivals around the world

We agree with other disability
pride festivals. We think people with disabilities are beautiful. and
amazing

Do not feel ashamed of who you are.

Disability pride
can make the world better.

You become proud by acting
proud

How can you act
proud of yourself?

www.disabilitypridesydney.com

disability\_pride\_sydney

Disabilitypridesydney

WHAT IS DISABILITY PRIDE?

Easy Read

We are celebrating together because we are proud to be ourselves. We are also proud of other people with disabilities

We are not using you to make people without disabilities feel good.

We want people to stop being unfair to people with disabilities

We know life with disability can be hard. But we can still be proud of ourselves.

We do not have problems because we are bad. We have problems because people do not include us.

We are people with disabilities. We means people with disabilities who organise disability pride.

Disability Pride is a way of thinking. Disability pride is also a way of acting.

People with disability deserve respect.